

NetNames for IT Professionals

In many companies, domain names and online security are managed by IT and technical professionals. Is this the situation with your organisation? If so, you will know that managing the renewals of hundreds or thousands of domain names, SSL Certificates, and Trust Seals is a huge task, perhaps preventing you from managing other core IT projects.

NetNames can assist you in this regard by ensuring the domain name management and online security processes for your company are either fully outsourced or less cumbersome if kept in-house. We can also assist you in reducing your domain name management costs and protecting your brands online from infringements such as cybersquatting, phishing and typosquatting.

NetNames can help...

If it is the task of the technical department within your company to protect your company's domain names, NetNames is the best domain name management, online brand protection, and online security company to help you.

NetNames:

- Provides you with access to the NetNames' online portal – NetNames Platinum Manager. This is a feature rich management interface which provides complete visibility and control of all your domain names 24 hours a day, seven days a week. The portal allows you to:
 - Name watch specified domain names
 - Manage your domain names in line with your business
 - Protect your portfolio with controlled access levels
 - Place registration orders instantly
 - Manage DNS records
 - Monitor third party registrations
 - Make 'bulk' updates to your portfolio
 - Host all your domain names on our world class DNS
- Undertakes an audit of your current domain names and processes. We:
 - Look at who is responsible for each domain name
 - Assess whether there is a consistent approach to registrations
 - Look at whether or not the entire portfolio of domain names should be consolidated
 - Assess whether or not a domain name GAP analysis has previously been carried out, based on your own market conditions and with regards to changes in domain regulations or availability

- Supports you and will happily liaise with other departments on your behalf regarding any registrations
- Shares the wealth of experience and in depth specialist knowledge regarding all domain name and security technical issues
- Provides 24/7/365 scheduled and un-scheduled support cover

Make life simple. Allow NetNames to manage your domain names.

NetNames for IT Professionals

" Since we started working with NetNames we have had some large challenges to master with regards to centralising our corporate portfolio. However due to the tremendous commitment of our account manager this was achieved professionally and far quicker than we could have achieved on our own.

We are very grateful for this and would not hesitate to recommend NetNames. "

Walter Meier AG

" NetNames has a high level of service and their industry expertise played a major role in consolidating our portfolio. They are therefore a strategic partner for us. "
